

GEORGE WASHINGTON'S
MOUNT ★ VERNON

THIS IS YOUR TICKET

Educators' Evening: An Evening with Laurie Halse Anderson

TICKET NUMBER

ORDER NUMBER

PRICE

PURCHASE DATE

PURCHASED BY

EVENT DATE

EVENT TIME

Thank you for registering for Educators' Evening: An Evening with Laurie Halse Anderson!

Registration will be open 3 – 5:45 p.m. in the Ford Orientation Center. Please have your ticket printed or available on your smart phone upon arrival.

In order to receive a full refund, you must check-in at the event.

Candlelight Mansion tour tickets will be handed out at check-in on a first come, first served basis. Please note: In order to enter the Mansion at the same time, all members of your group must be present to receive a ticket.

Laurie Halse Anderson's books, including Ashes, will be available for purchase at the event.

Please park in the public parking lots. For maps and additional information about parking, please visit our website.

If you have additional questions, please contact Jackie Jecha, jjecha@mountvernon.org or 703-799-5082.

Schedule of Events

3 – 5:45 p.m.

Registration and self-guided exploration of the estate, Donald W. Reynolds Museum and Education Center, featuring the new exhibit, Lives Bound Together: Slavery at George Washington's Mount Vernon

5:45 p.m.

An Evening with Laurie Halse Anderson in the Ford Orientation Center

6:45 p.m.

Candlelight Mansion tours, cocktail reception, and book signing

8:30 p.m.

Program concludes

#mountvernon

Regular photography and filming may incidentally capture your image. By accessing the property, guests grant the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association permission to utilize their image, appearance, and statements in audio, video, or photographic form without further authorization or compensation.

For your safety, bags larger than 16x16x8 inches are prohibited. All bags will be searched.

Visit mountvernon.org/guestrules for more important guidelines.